CHRIST COLLEGE

BANGALORE

From the Team...

Great institutions are built on strong foundations. The corner-stone is laid by a great leader with a futuristic vision and mission. Christ College with its motto "Excellence and Service" rests on this firm foundation.

The corner-stone who is Christ, the fountain head and His collaborators to this vision, the CMI Fathers have shaped the dreams of all its members for over 32 years. The holistic approach which is the purpose of this institution is reflected in every facet of this institution's life. This institution has gone through a series of testing times by various forces and has emerged victorious with its foundation unshaken. As you leaf through these pages you will visualise the fruits of its founding roots.

We take pride in our past, our present and unveil our achievements and aspirations for the future.

Blessed Kuriakose Elias Chavara

Here we have the graphic testimonial of yet another year of “Excellence and Service” for Christ College, in which all Christites have had a share. Christ College, of course, promotes Excellence - excellence, not only in academics, but also in the fields of sports and games as well as in cultural activities. Excellence, however, without Service would be de-humanizing. Hence, Christ College wants to inculcate in her alumni a deep sense of commitment to society, especially to its weaker sections. Service, however, without excellence would be sterile. Hence, Christites have to maintain a delicate balance between excellence and service. May this be a special hallmark of Christ College.

I trust that the college annual would truly be a testimonial as well as a catalyst of Christ College’s great ideal: “Excellence and Service”.

I am privileged to present to you our annual report of the activities of Christ College during the academic year 2000-01.

I acknowledge the Almighty for sustaining us and keeping us in His grace and providential protection throughout this academic year. Looking back, we have a lot to thank Him and praise Him. Let Him sustain and strengthen us and provide us the best ambience and strength to uphold our motto "Excellence and Service". It was veritably a year of action-reflection on our motto, which translated into many active forms of expression and life.

College reopened on June 15, 2000. The classes for PUCs commenced on the 1st of July and that for the degree on the 3rd of July. Orientation programme for faculty and students set the tone for the new year.

The student strength for this year was PUC 1409; Degree 2602; PG 363 totalling 4374. If we include the 500 strong evening course students it nearly touched 5000. As usual the PUC result in all classes were above 95%. Many of our degree and PG students brought laurels to the college at the university level.

Fr. Abraham V M returned after higher studies in the US. Prof S V I Loyola, Prof. D Srinivasan and Prof. Sundararajan retire this year after a meritorious service. Fr. Josekutty left us temporarily to take over as Principal at Kristu Jayanti College, Narayanapura. Ms. Annapurna Ramu, Dr. Selvaraj, Mrs. Manju Jose and Ms. Suja Thomas left us for greener pastures. Mr. Vasu J, Mr. Jyothiirmoy Ghosh, Ms. Grace Christy Rani, Dr. Shaji Thomas, Mr. Sibu Cyriac, Ms. Manju, Ms. Deepti Das, Ms. Jayanthi, Ms. Pearl Anita, Mrs. Shubhamangala, Mrs. Neena Thomas, Ms. Jyothi were the new comers to the teaching field. Mr. Kennedy Andrew Thomas, Mr. Anthony Raju, Ms. Reena D'Costa, Ms. Irene D'Souza and Ms. Renuka R joined the team of administrative staff.

We had a host of co-curricular programmes wherein our students excelled and made the city vibrate with their presence and contribution. The talent search, Darpan resulted in a high profile competition in all cultural areas with neck-to-neck competition to get into the cultural team of the college. The cultural team bagged many overall prizes in the intercollegiate festivals, especially in music, dance, sports, literary events and other cultural expressions.

Kannada drama 'Bhagavathajuukkeeya' bagged 6 prizes in the competitions held by Bharath Yatra Kendra, Karnataka Nataka Academy. Congratulations to the faculty and students of the Kannada Sangha who worked towards bringing Kannada Theatre back to its original prominence.

On January 31, 2001 the Centre for Publications published three new books, which were released by noted literateur Prof. L S Sheshagiri Rao.

Career Fair 2001 was an innovative and first ever attempt to bring placement providers, namely the corporate human resource personnel, to the campus to select the students. It was held on January 13 and 14, 2001.

The Counselling Centre played a very creative role in minimising the tension for parents and students - parents were involved at every step whether it was absenteeism or other growth-related problems. Mrs. Jaqueline, the Co-ordinator deserves special mention along with the other teachers who worked with her.

The Centre for Education Beyond Curriculum had many activities spread throughout the year for our faculty, students and for the teachers and administrators of other schools and colleges. In collaboration with IIM Bangalore, IISc Bangalore and National Law School of India University, CEDBEC organised many training programmes, lectures and workshops. Under the holistic education programme, students received learning modules on Indian Constitution, Teamwork and Self-awareness. All the associations and clubs had a very active time this year with programmes tailored to the needs of each department, association and club.

The Alumni Association had a very active year with Cab Kerala, the chapter in Kerala inaugurating its own forum, which was attended by Mr. Francis George, M. P., Mr. V J Kurian, IAS, and the alumni. We anticipate the trend to continue and that we will eventually have units all over India and abroad.

It was an honour for Christ College as we collaborated with Bangalore University in hosting the South Zone Inter University basketball tournament. CHRISPO, held in September and October in our grounds witnessed the participation of forty colleges in football and basketball - our teams won both the events.

Our involvement in society through social awareness and action programmes reached new heights with the joint programmes of National Service Scheme, Centre for Social Action and Centre for Social Research. About 100 students of Rajendranagar slum receive their uniform, school fees, tuition and support through our energetic volunteers.

A new 4 wheeler parking lot was added this year to off-load the pressure for parking in the campus. Thanks to Dharmaram College and the generosity of the management, land for PU block is allotted and we hope to commence construction. The college now has a new look with the 2 gates and space provided at the entrance. The birds' garden in the southern end provides a natural setting for relaxation and space for lunches.

To conclude, let me honestly thank ...

- ... all the students who joined hands with us in promoting better education and better life for all of us.
- ... all the teachers and staff for their self-effacing contributions in bringing holistic education to students.
- ... and the supporting staff and all those who have invested in the growing generations - they are our strength.

Let me specially mention Fr. Thomas, Vice Principal, the Co-ordinators of various courses, Centres, Heads of Departments and all who share in the responsibilities of this great institution, in ushering Christ College into this new millennium, with a heart full of gratitude.

May God continue to shower His choicest blessings on us to grow together.

Fr. Sebastian Thekkedathu, CMI
Principal

MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

"If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew;
to serve your turn long after they are gone,
and so hold on when there is nothing in you ;
except the will that says to them... Hold On".

-Rudyard Kipling

This is the attitude that the faculty and students of the MBA programme at Christ College possess.

The MBA programme is a highly professional 2 year PG programme approved by the AICTE. The faculty ever alert to feel the pulse of the business world, works hand - in - hand with the faculty members from leading management institutes and the business sector, to provide the best to budding executives. The college offers specialisation in Finance, Marketing, Systems and Human Resources.

"USHUS" the inter collegiate management fest signifies the dawn. It is a gift offered to business students every year to create opportunities to be in a simulated work environment. This year's USHUS

(a three day event), inaugurated by Mr. Biswadeep Mitra, Managing Director, Texas Instruments, was punctuated with exciting challenges.

The fest started with a corporate Panel Discussion on the topic - "Managing Relationships in Organisations". The panelists were Mr. Vaibhav Tiwari-CEO iSeva Systems, Mr. Ravi Ramu - CEO, Ivega Corporation, Mr. John Serrao, General Manager, Exim Soft and Mr. John V.C. Director Operations. MAA Bozell. This was followed by stimulating and competitive events for management students in all functional areas, including the 'Best Manager' contest, and ending with the grand finale 'Inquest', the corporate management quiz anchored by Mr. Arul Mani and Mr. Avinash Mudaliar of the Karnataka Quiz Association. 30 Business school teams and 50 Corporate teams participated.

Not only are the students of CCIM given an exhaustive curriculum, they are also provided placements as launching pad for good careers.

It is CCIM's proud privilege to declare 100% placements for the year 2000!

SOCIOLOGY

The Department of Sociology initiated a number of activities this year, which included workshops on leadership skills, careers in NGOs and writing in social sciences.

The senior MA students undertook minor research projects in varied areas including social gerontology, primary education and gender studies.

In order to expose students to Development work, the I year students were placed in reputed Non-Governmental Organizations for a period of ten days. Some of the organizations were Freedom Foundation, Janodaya, FEDINA, Joint Women's Programme, Mithra Foundation and REDS.

Students presented papers on a number of themes from Social Theory, Sociology of Organizations, Sociology of Industrial Relations, Research Methodology and Rural Sociology.

Audio-visual media was used to generate debates and discussions among students. Sensitive documentaries like 'Lesser Humans', 'Illyum Mullum' and 'Nepal' were viewed to understand issues like Human Rights, Sexual Harassment of Women and Casteism.

The seminars on social issues and the workshop on writing skills have enriched me. The department has been an inspiration to me for which I am grateful.

BACHELOR OF BUSINESS MANAGEMENT

The Department had an eventful year of rigorous academic pursuit and extra-curricular achievements.

The Association was inaugurated by Dr. Bhami of Cipla. SYNOSURE- an inter-collegiate fest for the students of first year was held with the introduction of new events like "Tenders and Quotations".

Industrial trips were organised for the students to HFCL and D-Link at Goa and Taneja Aerospace and HLL at Bangalore.

The students won the overall trophy at Precipice (Mahaveer Jain College), Zen Fest (Dr. B.R. Ambedkar College), Tejas (Sri R.N. Adarsha College) and Zeidgeist (Al-Ameen College)

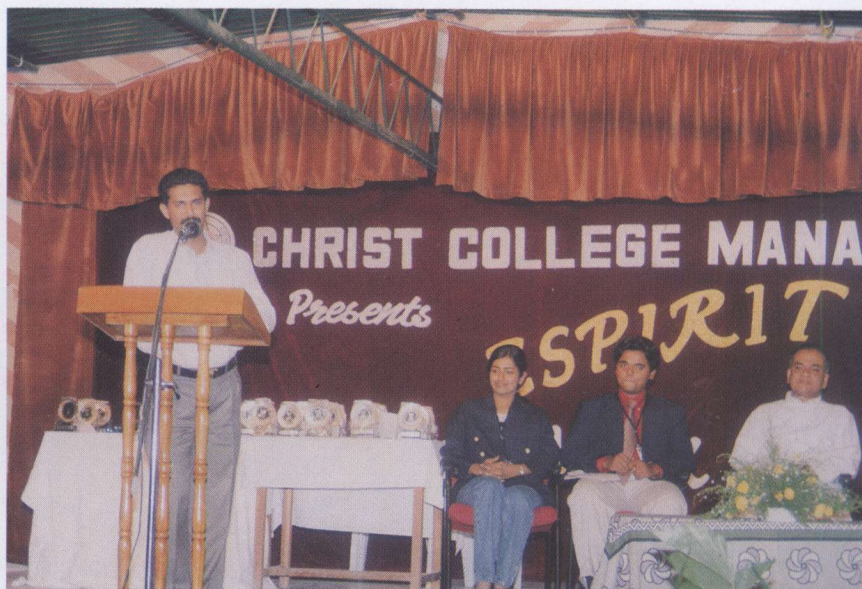

The grand finale was ESPIRIT 2001, an inter-collegiate management fest which had colleges from Bangalore and Mangalore participating. The fest was inaugurated by Mr. Subroto Bagchi, Head - Operations at Mindtree Consulting. Students came up with innovative ideas like distributing invites on CD's, holding events like an online stock exchange game, a 25 year entrepreneurship plan and the extraordinary general body meeting.

The news letter "The Ice Age" was launched by Rev. Fr. Principal.

Apart from the syllabus of Marketing, Human Resource and Finance, it is the practical knowledge that the students gain which makes a BBM student stand out.

Saritha
III BBM

BACHELOR OF HOTEL MANAGEMENT

Students secured the first five ranks in the university examination. The faculty members underwent a rigorous training program in industry to keep them updated with the ongoing changes. The activities started with the inauguration of the Christ College Hotel Management Association (CCHMA) where the first Newsletter-THE TREND SETTER was launched by Mr. Sabu, the Training Manager of The Taj West End and Rev. Fr. Sebastian. T. A.

In addition to many guest lectures, students visited industries like The Bangalore Dairy, Hotel Taj Residency, The Grover Vineyard and United Breweries

Students were given many opportunities to build their interpersonal skills by participating in and organising various events.

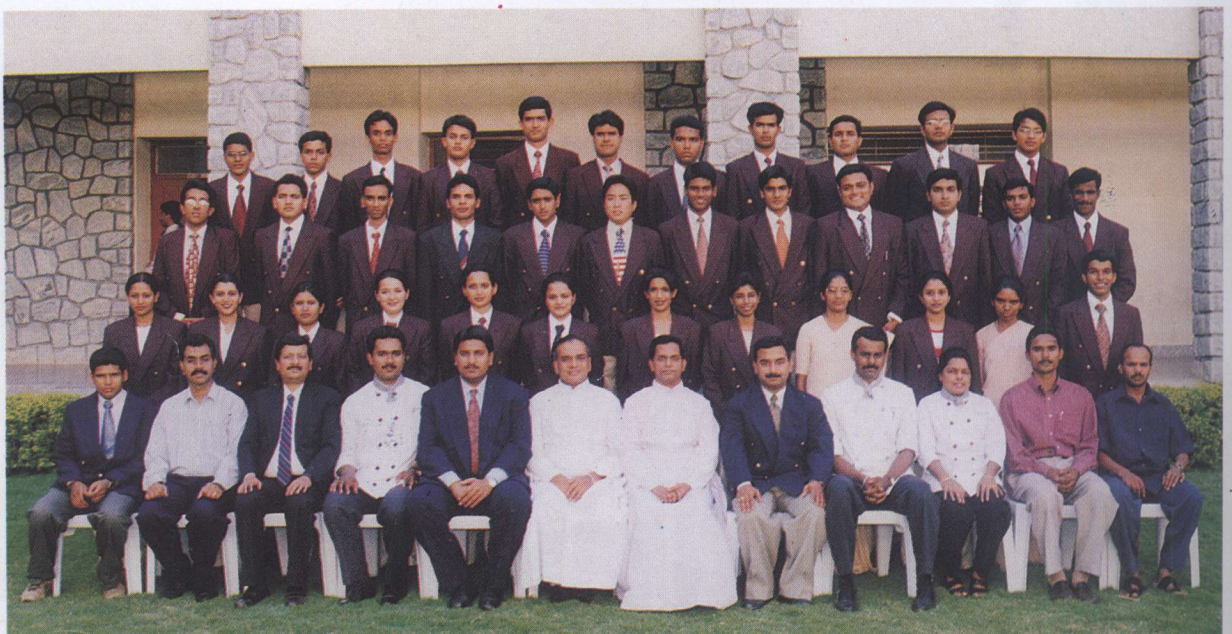

At the IITM - India International Travel Mart, students organised "Arome"-a multi-cuisine food court at Kanteerava Stadium, Bangalore. Dakshin Yatra -a South Indian food festival was held to mark World Tourism Day. All India Hotel Management Skills Competition, Chef Competition and Hotel Ability Tests were conducted in association with the Taj Group of Hotels. Arome was also held during In Bloom and Career Fair.

Students also went on a field visit to Adigondanahalli village in association with the Centre for Social Action.

Practical classes and demos were held by eminent Chefs from the industry on carving, exotic salads and menu management.

The students also participated in intercollegiate competitions at KLE, PES, Ramaiah, Jyoti Nivas, KKRM, Merit Swiss to name a few and brought many laurels. They won the National level paper presentation competition at Merit Swiss School.

Some of the organisations that have recruited BHM students are The Taj Group Of Hotels, The Oberoi, Mahindras, The Park, GE Capital, The Leela, Windsor Manor, 24/7 Customer.Com, The Prestige Group, Trident Oberoi, Residency Chennai, St Marks and Hilton.

I am thankful to the crew of dedicated teachers for their constant support and encouragement and for having given me a head start in the competitive battle ahead.

COMMUNICATIVE ENGLISH

The Communicative English course demands that students learn the nuances of the media, communication and entrepreneurship through practical exercises and internship.

To understand the traditions of music and to be able to write a DJ script, a "Class Party with a Difference" was organised which also gave an insight into classical western dance, performed by the Connie & Danny School. The event was choreographed by the PEC students. The students in charge of public relations ensured positive pre and post event coverage.

The worth of that is that which it contains" The richness of the college is in its tradition and values.

Krupa M Reddy
III PEC

Students participated in a rural exposure project. First and second year students worked in various media related organizations and earned valuable experience. The PEC students have also been working towards completion of their website – PECPORTAL.com.

The year came to a close with a graduation ceremony, complete with candles, a passing out sermon and an interactive dinner.

This year's Bookmarks saw a greater interest from publishers and interactive CD distributors.

COM.COM, the cultural event of the Department, was a two-day event that tested all areas of communication, creativity, general and media awareness with the theme Communication – The Ritual of Life.

This 3 year comprehensive course has provided us with an array of career options, besides instilling in us self confidence to face the competitive world.

Kanisha Gulwadi

ECONOMICS

The department conducted talks, coaching classes and quiz programmes. This was aimed at encouraging students to participate, and to create a forum for discussion and learning.

Quiz programmes were conducted for the final year pre-university and degree students on the theme 'The Indian Economy' and for the first year degree students on 'Economic Theory'.

A special coaching programme on Business Economics was conducted for the first year degree commerce students.

Among various talks held, the most notable one was by Prof. Govind Rao who spoke on the Fiscal Policy of India. Besides, the students of III PSEco had a fun-filled educational trip to Goa. The trip was enjoyable as well as a learning experience.

The teachers here are so experienced that they are well-versed in their subject. Besides being so helpful, they are great friends and a guiding force for all of us.

HISTORY

HISTORIA, the Association of the Department aims to further academic interest in the subject. A quiz competition for all the History faculty in the city colleges was organised on Republic Day. While as many as 35 teams participated in the preliminary rounds, 6 teams were selected for the final round.

The faculty is dynamic, efficient and encouraging and have taken great interest in the all-round development of character and the personality of the students.

Suresh Babu
III KHP

The Department has been a source of inspiration to all the students.

The faculty is highly proficient and given us knowledge and created a sense of interest in the subject.

Srividya.V. M
III HEP

The department has always striven to give importance to history and its relevance in today's times. As George Santayana rightly said, 'Those who forget history will be condemned to repeat it.'

JOURNALISM

A workshop cum lecture session for the final year students was held by Mr. Pradeep Nair, Senior Sub-editor of the Times of India, Bangalore.

Ms. Chitra Phadnis (The Hindu Business Line), Ms. P. Lobo (The Asian Age) and Mr. Arunava Sinha (ndya.com) spoke to students to create awareness and interest in the traditional and the new media.

The Journalism department has especially helped me realise my potential as a journalist through absorbing sessions in the class and equally challenging internships in publications.

Rahul C
III JPEng

Our course gives a firm grounding in the subject, not just in theory but practice as well. The dedicated and supportive faculty as well as the various opportunities available makes it an enjoyable and fruitful experience.

Neethi S
III JPEng

The year also witnessed a phenomenal growth in the lab journal publications. 'Jack on the Newstalk' set the trend, followed by 'Inkspot', 'The Rookie Press' and 'De Facto'. With the fest newsletter 'Pressing Matters' the printed word left an indelible mark on the campus.

EXPRESSIONS, the Journalism fest saw participation from 10 city colleges. The speakers included Mr. Aprupo Acharya and Mr. Rakesh Krishnan (both from OyeIndia.com), who spoke about the new media and its impact on the industry.

The crowning moment of the year was the success of the journalism students at the Symbiosis fest 'Fest-O-Comm', once again.

POLITICAL SCIENCE

The Political Science Association was inaugurated with representatives elected from each class. This was to enhance the leadership qualities of the students. The association conducted seminars, paper presentations, essay competitions, cartooning, and various group activities.

The association also created an impact outside college when Viju (III HEP) won an inter-collegiate lecture contest at The National College, Basavangudi.

The Political Science department has helped us become responsible citizens and made us aware of our rights and duties.

PSYCHOLOGY

This year, the association conducted various programmes and seminars by experts. Fr. George Kannanthanam conducted a workshop on 'Substance Abuse' that was educative and interesting. Talks by Dr. Hema Diwakar, on 'Myths and Misconceptions of youth health' and by Dr. Tanya Machado on 'Psycho-Physiological illnesses' were held.

The senior students visited Orkay Industries, followed by a clinical visit to Cadambams, the home for the mentally challenged.

SILHOUETTE, the intra collegiate event had 'Emotions' as its theme. The final year students were given an opportunity to present their views and ideas in psychology. Quiz competitions and exhibitions formed part of SILHOUETTE. The rolling trophy was won by PEC.

The department released its journal - a compilation of articles written by the teachers and students.

At the Career Fair, the department administered and interpreted psychological tests for the visitors to their pavilion - this was well received.

The past three years have been one of learning and friendships. I am indebted to the department for their support and guidance.

SOCIOLOGY

To orient students towards a holistic approach to learning, many seminars, quizzes, group dynamics, empirical studies and reviews, paper presentations and teaching demonstrations were held. To foster an interest in research, small projects were given to them at the PUC and Degree level. Paper presentations on topical issues were held so that the students could imbibe a sense of involvement in the social environment. The department also held counseling sessions with the students as part of the learning process and thereby identified the strengths and weaknesses of students.

COMPUTER SCIENCE

With the theme 'Opening minds for creative solutions' the Department organized its festival Interface-2000. Mr. Guru Dutt, HR Manager of Axes Technologies was the Chief Guest. With over 25 colleges participating, the gallery of events included IT Quiz, Software Development and Crossword.

The department organized a training course in JAVA and VB for the III year students and a FoxPro course for the II years. To keep the students abreast of the latest trends in the IT world, seminars on e-commerce, in association with Asset International and System Domain were held. A subject seminar on "Coding Standards" was delivered by Mr. Krishnan, an alumni of MCA.

They reached another milestone with the launch of their independent placement programme - 'Next Step'. This programme was specifically aimed at augmenting the aptitude and inter-personal skills of the students. Students were put through a battery of aptitude test, quizzes, seminars and GD. The independent placement cell brought out a brochure, which is being distributed to many companies.

To inculcate the much-needed social awareness among students and to make them feel for the needy, a one-day village camp was conducted at Adigondanahalli.

The three years of my interaction with the Department has been fabulous - it has been a learning experience all the way through.

ELECTRONICS

The activities of the Electronics club were formally initiated with the gadget exhibition, organized by the final year PME students. The students exhibited the internal circuits and components of the gadgets to the curious visitors. The exhibits included Valve radio, Transistor radio, Television, Personal Computer, Communication systems, Digital systems, Electronic games and music systems.

A two weeks practical oriented course was organized by the club, in association with Microhard Services (P) Limited, Bangalore, where the students received hands on experience in assembling, software setup and maintenance of personal computers.

Circuit 2000, the Intercollegiate competition was inaugurated by Mr. Nandakishore from Atel Systems, who spoke on "Computer interface to electronics circuits".

A seminar on 'Hardware and Networking technology' organized in association with Infonenix Computers Pvt. Ltd., Bangalore helped the students discover the job opportunities in different fields related to networking, electronics and computers.

At the intercollegiate competition "Electronica 2000" organized by St. Joseph's College, Bangalore, Ms Beena and Ms Aswini won third place in collage. Mr. Meenakshi Sundaram won the 2nd prize in the Electronics Lecture contest organized by RBANMS College, Bangalore.

Programmes on self esteem, team work and Indian Constitution were also held.

MATHEMATICS

The motto "To make a difference in the new millennium" was aptly coined by the department, which saw momentous growth in the past academic year with 98% results.

An array of events, commencing with an orientation programme for II PME students was conducted. Dr. Lalitha, additional professor in psychiatry and nursing, NIMHANS spoke on the topic, "Skills for happy and healthy living-Interpersonal relationships". Prof P L Sachdev from IISc inaugurated the activities of the association.

"CONVERGENCE" 2000, the inter-collegiate fest was inaugurated by Prof. Chancal Uberoi, Dean of Sciences, IISc. This served as a perfect platform for the students from 13 colleges to showcase their talents.

A village trip to Adigondahalli was organized for the III PCM students. Workshops on personal, interpersonal and societal skills for II CME, II PME and III PCM students were held.

PHYSICS

The Department of Physics has been constantly striving hard to help students understand the spirit of scientific temper and to inculcate the art of observational capabilities coupled with good thinking.

A number of seminars, lectures, quiz programmes were organised for each class by their respective teachers. Besides the regular curricular activities, students were encouraged in extra-curricular and co-curricular activities, particularly through the Physical Sciences Association.

Eureka 2000, as in the previous year provided a good platform to stimulate and bring out the dormant scientific talents in the degree science students. The response was tremendous and Christ College won the over-all trophy. Regular and periodical tests for the students and counselling for the weak students were also undertaken by the faculty.

The future plan of the Department includes involving final BSc students in some of the minor project work of the department and to arrange a science festival for the PU students.

The Campus Recruitment Programme saw 47 students from the final year being placed - more recruitments are awaited.

Jet Airways, Juno Online Services, Sallimae Solutions, GE, AirTel to name a few organisations held their selection and recruitment programme at Christ College.

A Career Fair was organised on the 13th and 14th of January to provide an interface between organisations and educational institutions. Students got an opportunity to interact with industry and apply for jobs of their choice.

Achievement in life is everyone's desire - my desire has been fulfilled in part by the Placement Centre.

Ujala Sapru

In an age when there is an increasing need for greater communication and interaction between various business organisations and the student community the Office of Placements at the Christ College organised CAREER FAIR on the 13th and the 14th of January 2001 with the motto MEET THE FUTURE- this fair was held at the college premises.

At the inauguration, Prof. B.K Chandrashekar, the Honourable Minister for Information & Publicity, Govt. of Karnataka lauded the efforts of Christ College at their premier attempt at a CAREER FAIR of this magnitude. He said it was the social responsibility of educational institutions to conduct such fairs which provide a meeting ground for corporates and students.

Corporates in areas as varied as Training, Publishing, Recruitment, Media and Research are participated in the fair.

A 4800 strong Christite community as well as students from Engineering colleges, Business Schools and other colleges participated in the fair.

An added attraction of this fair was the FOOD FESTIVAL AROME, organised by the students of the Department of Hotel Management and the CHRIST COLLEGE PAVILION.

At the CHRIST COLLEGE PAVILION, information on the various departments, their achievements & career opportunities available to the students were displayed. A few PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTS like the Brain Laterality Test, Eysenck personality Inventory, Luscher Colour Test and intelligence Tests were administered and interpreted.

The Kerala Chapter of Christ College Alumni Association, Bangalore was inaugurated on Sunday, 30th April, 2000 at Rajagiri College of Social Sciences, Kalamaserry. The General Body Meeting of the Association was held on 19th November, 2000 at Hotel Mermaid Days Inn, Kaniyampuzha Road, Cochin.

Last year the association sponsored at "Darpan", the debate competition, and this year it sponsored the Indian and Western music—solo, and the debate.

Along with the Lions Club of Bangalore, the Association organised a blood donation camp at the South Asian Institute for Advanced Christian Studies, Kothanur. It also conducted a health camp for the primary school children at the request of St. Charles High School.

To generate funds for the association, a raffle draw was held in October 2000 during which 3 of our senior retiring professors: Prof. Abraham.-Department of Malayalam., Prof. D. Srinivasan- Department of Political Science and Prof. S.V. I. Loyola of Department of Zoology, were felicitated.

On Republic Day, as usual, the Alumni Association organised The Annual Family Get-together, bringing back memories of old and recent campus life.

...s twinning programme between Christ College and ndicherry University has widened the scope of ducation and has provided an opportunity and cess to all such people, who are unable to attend y college mostly due to a work schedule or the sic nature of their job.

The course proved to be an added advantage for MNCs like Thomson Financial Research where I currently work, having been placed through the Pondicherry University programme.

Jyothi Ajay
II MFM

The twinning programme of Christ College-Pondicherry University has provided me with an opportunity to develop my skills and has given me knowledge to face international business scenarios.

Ajay Singh Mohonot
II MFT

The courses offered under the twinning programme this year were MMM, MFM, MFT, MHRM, PGDBA, PGDHRM, PGDCA, BBA and BCA. Packed with seminars, extension programmes and workshops, the programme aims at strengthening personal maturity, integrity, teamwork and social concern.

The belief that education is not confined to the four walls of the classroom resulted in CHRISPON - Unity in Action - the annual intra collegiate festival. It has brought students of various courses, experiences and age groups on a single platform, to exhibit their talent through a series of cultural and competitive events.

"The heart has its reasons, which reason does not know"

The AICUF [All India Christian University Federation] unit of Christ College strives to help the students to listen to their hearts' reasoning by nourishing their spiritual roots and destiny of the Christian students in the college.

The Principal flagged off the programmes for the year.

Prayer meetings were held every Monday,

When God gives a call, he gives the confidence. AICUF to me is a 'call'. A call to know, believe, to accept and to walk in his ways. A call to become better 'me' and for creating a better tomorrow.

Smitha Lobo
II B.Com A

An overwhelming joy fills my heart as I fondly recall the experiences I have had with AICUF. I have learned that life becomes meaningful when we work together with the Lord as our strength and guide. It was wonderful whenever we communicated with the Lord and placed our visions, our efforts and anxieties at His feet.

Jovin George,

Wednesday and Friday. Holy mass was celebrated every first Wednesday for PU and first Friday for degree students

A two day retreat by The Jesus Youth Team was held and a 1- day retreat specially for the PG students was guided by Rev. Fr. Rajpaul and his team from Corner Stones

The AICUF choreography and audio-visual teams performed at the Yesu Christu Jayanti 2000 national convention held in Bangalore and at the AICUF inauguration in Jyoti Nivas College, Bangalore. "The Divine Gift": an enthralling 90 minutes Christmas capsule was presented for the whole college.

A special prayer session for the Gujarat earthquake victims was held. AICUFers participated in the regional seminar on cultural nationalism and in the Biblos quiz competition.

The theme for the AICUF day "Jesus, the hub of our lives" was presented by Rev. C. A. Benjamin.

WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

The activities of the association began with a formal inauguration on 30th Aug 2000 - this also marked the beginning of a two and a half-month course in yoga for the girls as well as for the faculty. Mrs. Vasantha Krishnaya, an expert in the field of yoga, conducted the classes.

A lecture on the 'Myths and Misconceptions on Youth Health' by Dr. Hema Divakar was arranged for the degree students. She helped clear all the wrong notions that were present in the mind of the students.

The twenty-day programme on yoga has enlightened me about its amazing healing powers. It was an excellent activity for maintaining overall physical and mental fitness. It has helped me develop a healthy personality, free from stress and pressure.

CAREER EXPO 2001 - BAHRAIN

Christ College participated in the Career Expo held on January 11 and 12 at The Indian School, Bahrain. All, 26 educational institutions from all over the world were represented - some of them were Hotel Institute Montreaux (Switzerland), American University in Beirut (Lebanon), National University of Singapore, IDP Education Australia, Al Ghurair Academy (UAE), NIIT, Manipal Academy, London School of Commerce, Middlebury University (UK) and the British Council (Bahrain). The college stall was a big draw among students keen on pursuing higher education in India.

CULTURAL ACTIVITIES

Cultural Forum: The various activities of this year began in customary fashion to choose the best cultural talent that will form the coveted Christ College Cultural Team, in the college through Darpan 2000. Over 1000 students participated in this month long competition.

The newly constituted team made their first voyage, to JIPMER, Pondicherry. Here, the cul team clinched the overall trophy at the prestigious fest called Spandan 2000. The winning streak continued with landslide victories in 'Cul-Ah' at Mount Carmel College, Le-Gala at the National College, 'Autumn-Muse' at St. John's Medical College and finally at 'In Bloom' on home territory.

Spandan 2000: The trip to JIPMER, Pondicherry has always been a special and a coveted one, dreamed of, by any Christite. After an exhaustive and rigorous month long scrutiny through Darpan 2000, the cultural team was selected with Madan Kumar III CMS and Anita Ollapally III PSEco as the captains. There was high expectation from the cul-team as they were the defending champions at the fest. But, when the going gets tough, the tough get going and the team proved just that. They scored a spectacular triumph in the stage-events as well as the 'art and literary' events. Christ College retained the overall trophy with a record margin of 110 points. Therefore, it was yet another glorious year for the cultural team and its 'cul'mination was at Spandan 2000

The cultural forum of Christ College opens up a world of competition in which success and failure teach us discipline and team spirit. Togetherness has always been our strength. It's like one big family and I am privileged to be a part of it.

Anita Ollapally
III PSEco

Bloom was a colossal success, probably the most successful fest Christ College has ever hosted. Records were broken and as many as 38 colleges took part. The inimitable zeal of the students in participating in and organising the show was the recipe for success. Arome 2000, the annual fest of the Department of Hotel Management was an added feature. All in all, the fest had everything – grandeur, pomp and show.

The prize distribution ceremony for Darpan 2000 and other activities was held in early February. Mrs. Mary Kapally, Principal, St. John's College was the Chief Guest.

College Day is an important and memorable event in the annual calendar of Christ College. Its 32nd edition was celebrated on February 17, 2001. The presence of Mr. D B Inamdar, Hon'ble Minister for Food & Civil Supplies, Govt. of Karnataka as the Guest of Honour and Mr. Jayakar Jerome, the Commissioner of the Bangalore Development Authority (BDA) on this occasion, added radiance to the already glittering function. As a final touch to the cultural year 2000-2001, the programme featured a breathtaking exhibition of the best cultural talent in the college. It was also an apt farewell to the outgoing students. This day will certainly be a part of nostalgia for a long time to come.

ports has always been an integral part of Christ
 ege. For years, the institution has churned out best players and athletes in the city and the e. Be it football, basketball or in cricket, there e been great sportsmen making their mark. This r has been no different and the activities in this d have been held in a systematic way. Many of students have represented the Karnataka state ms and the Bangalore university teams.

ORIENTATION PROGRAMME

The Staff Orientation of Christ College is unique and is aligned with the mission and a vision of the institution. It creates a zest for continuous improvement in quality education. The aim is to visualize efficiency and commitment in spite of diverse perceptions; and to create synergy, truly making the whole greater than its parts. The staff orientation programme was held on Saturday, June 24, 2000 at the Village Resort, Bellalu village, off Mysore Road, Bangalore.

The programme had two Sessions, one on Holistic Development, where the components of intellectual competence -

Academic brilliance, Professional skills, Info-tech awareness, Creativity and Objectivity were discussed

The sessions enabled the faculty to reflect on and review the teaching-learning process to achieve academic brilliance. The dialogues carried out in open and professional ambience set the tone to unlearn and relearn effective strategies to match the competence that our changing times demand, from the faculty as well as students.

This was followed by Departmental meetings where strategies for the year were set.

NON-TEACHING

On July 15, 2000 all the non-teaching staff gathered at the Birds Garden to felicitate 11 non-teaching staff who have carved a niche for themselves in the history of the College through their 25 years of dedicated, committed and selfless service.

We bid adieu...

Prof. S V I Loyola

I have known Prof. Loyola from 1950, when we were schoolmates.

He is a man of prayer with deep faith in God - he has attributed all his achievements to God's benevolence. An empathetic person, he has never missed an opportunity to help those in need. His presence in the department was a very vitalising force. Personally, I am going to miss a very good friend.

Prof. Joseph Eden
Department of Zoology

Prof. D Srinivasan

Prof. D Srinivasan is known for his simplicity and high thinking. A far sighted leader, he has taken the department to pinnacles of excellence. The department has functioned effectively under his able and effective guidance. We wish him a very happy, healthy and contented retired life.

C M Rajashekaraiah
Department of Political Science

Prof. Sundararajan

Prof. Sundararajan is a stickler for discipline, an efficient teacher, an author and an eminent scientist. A contented and God-fearing man, he has always been kind to his colleagues and has cultivated in them several virtues like moral uprightness, intellectual honesty, sincerity and hardwork. May God bless him abundantly.

RECTOR'S DAY AND CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

During the President of The Christ College Education Society and the Rector of Dharmaram College, Rev. Fr. Sebastian Poonolly holds a special and an essential role in the functioning of the college. Every year he is honoured by the staff on a day which ends with the Christmas celebration.

The Terrace Garden was colourfully illuminated to set the tone for a delightful evening. The programme began with a felicitation to Fr. Rector by the faculty. This was followed by an entertainment programme by both the teaching and non-teaching fraternity.

In all, a joyous occasion to honour Rev. Fr. Rector and to usher in the Christmas season.

*Shall death cause us to grieve
And make our courage faint and fall?
Nay! Let us faith and hope receive
The rose still grows beyond the wall
Scattering fragrance far and wide
