Dr Seranmadevi R

Associate Professor

Department of Professional Studies

Being the class teacher of the final year sections of BCom (F&A) is both a privilege and a bittersweet feeling. I am so happy to have had the opportunity to teach this talented batch of students over the last year. The third issue of MAGNATE coincides with the conclusion of the time of the final year students on campus.

As the time for passing the baton to the first and second years is approaching, I wish all the very best to the outgoing batch and hope you all strive towards achieving all laurels one can achieve in life.

Warm Regards,

Dr Seranmadevi R

Dr Umasankar M Associate Professor and Programme Coordinator -MSc (Actuarial Science)

More than just being an academic programme, the BCom (F&A) course is the cradle for ingenuity, tenacity, and zeal. This has been proved year after year with the quality of students coming through the ranks of this course. Our students have been able to effectively manage their academic load, along with excelling in various other activities the university has to offer.

I want to congratulate the entire team behind this new and exciting edition of Magnate, and I wish the very best to all the students in pursuance of their future endeavours.

A hearty congratulations to you all!

Warm regards,

Dr Umasankar M

Dr Martha Sucharitha M Assistant Professor and Programme Coordinator - BCom (Professional)

The students of the Department of Professional Studies are known to juggle roles flawlessly despite their commitment towards a rigorous academic routine. Every day at campus comes to me as a box of surprises filled with events and competitions our students engage in. Our Christites have passionately participated in Literary, Cultural and Sports events on campus and across Universities, upskilling themselves with every opportunity seized for their holistic development.

With the academic year coming to a close, our team of students and faculty are celebrating victories and cherishing moments through the second edition of Magnate - The Chartered's Corner. I am extremely proud of all the students for their immense contribution towards the department and continued cooperation towards the management.

A hearty congratulations to you all!

Warm regards, Dr Martha Sucharitha M
